Rosewood Casket

(Little Rosewood Casket)

There's a little rosewood casket resting on a marble stand; With a packet of love letters, Written by my true love's hand.

---

Verses

Go and fetch them for me sister, Read them o'er for me tonight I have often tried but could not see, For the tears that filled my eyes

Well I saw him on the pathway, With another by his side And I thought I heard him whisper, She was soon to be his bride

Tell him that I will forgive him, Even though he's been untrue Go and tell him that I love him, As I bid this world adieu

Take his letters and his locket, Place them gently on my heart But this golden ring that he gave me, From my finger never part.

While singing fret chords

\[
\begin{align*}
D &= 0 \\
G &= 1 \\
A &= 0
\end{align*}
\]

Hints: This is one of those songs where one can reverse the way D and G are fretted.

A little different G sound results from playing

\[
\begin{align*}
3 &\text{ instead of } 1 \\
0 &0
\end{align*}
\]
