Verse 2
And the flowers I knew, in the fields where they grew
Were content to be lost in the crowd, (in the crowd)
They were common and close, I had no room for growth
And I wanted so much to branch out, (to branch out)
I uprooted myself from home ground and left
Took my dreams and I took to the road (to the road)
When a flower grows wild, it can always survive,
Wild flowers don't care where they grow (where they grow)

Verse 3
I grew up fast and wild, and I never felt right,
In a garden so different from me (from me)
I just never belonged, I just longed to be gone
So the garden one day set me free (set me free).
Hitched a ride on the wind and since He was my friend
I just let Him decide where we'd go (where we'd go).
When a flower grows wild it can always survive
Wild flowers don't care where they grow (where they grow)
