I'll Be All Smiles Tonight

T.B. Ranson (1879)

1. I'll deck my brow with roses, my true love may be there. The gems that others gave me will shine within my hair. And even those that know me will think my heart is light. Tho' my heart may break to-

Chorus in Italics

be all smiles tonight, love, I'll

I'll
2. And when the room he entered,
The bride upon his arm
I stood and gazed upon him
As though he was a charm.

And then he smiled upon her
As once he smiled on me
They know not what I suffered
They found no change in me.

I'll Be All Smiles Tonight

Chorus

3. And when the dance is over
And all have gone to rest,
I'll think of him, dear mother,
The one that I love best.

He once did love, believe me;
But now he's cold and strange
He sought not to deceive me;
False friends have brought this change.
