Red River Valley

In D major

CHORUS
Then come sit here awhile e'er you leave us,
Do not hasten to bid us adieu;
Just remember the Red River Valley
And the cowboy who loved you so true.

2.
I have promised you darling that never
Shall the words from my lips cause you pain
And my life, it shall be yours forever,
If you only love me again.
When you think of the valley you're leaving,
Oh how lonely and drear it would be.
When you think of the fond heart you're breaking
And the pain you are causing to me.

CHORUS
