Well, I went around the corner and I grew around the block, and I walked right into a doughnut shop, and I fetched me a doughnut right_ _out of the grease, and I handed the lady a five cent piece.
Turkey in the straw, Ha, ha ha! Turkey in the hay,

Hey, hey, hey! The bull-frog danced with his brother in law and he hit 'em up a tune called Turkey in the Straw!

Well, I went around the corner and I went around the block
And I walked right into a doughnut shop;
I fetched me a doughnut right out of the grease
And I handed the lady a five-cent piece.

She looked at the nickel and she looked at me;
She said, "This nickel's no good to me.
There's a hole in the middle that goes all the way through!"
I said, "There's a hole in your doughnuts, too."

Turkey in the straw, ha, ha, ha!
Turkey in the hay, hey, hey, hey!
The bullfrog danced with his brother-in-law
And he hit 'em up a tuned called Turkey in the Straw!

If frogs had wings and snakes had hair and automobiles went running through the air;
If watermelons grew on a huckleberry vine, we'd all have winter in the summertime.
