Beanie is my little black poodle who’s eyes dance and mind, body and soul twirls when he gets a new toy ball. This is the stuff he lives for.

Being written in the style of a traditional fiddle tune (AA, BB), this is a great, albeit simple song for learning the chord changes required in every song played in the Mixolydian mode.

It should be played very fast with as much rhythmic variation and improvisation as you can muster.