Fairhope, I Love You

A.G. & J.M. Pilcher

Intro

1. There's a verdant shore by the waters blue where we dearly love to stay.
2. There's no winter cold in that sunnym clime where we long to be there, on the banks of Mobile Bay.
3. On that sandy beach with its shady bower, we can wander gay and free.
4. When the dogwood bright with its blossoms rise, the sweet magnolias come to kiss the boughs above.
5. There's a purpose grand to redeem the land and they strive to lead the way.
