If you're goin' on a hike down the App-alach-ian trail, you be lonesome in the eve-nin' it happens without fail, So get your-self a dul-ci-mer, in vite a night-in-gale, and make some moun-tain mus ic on the trail

Get your-self a dul-ci-mer and let it talk to you it does-n't mat-ter where you are if

Get Yourself A Dulcimer

arr: William G. Spencer words by Lucille Stockton

Page 1 of 2 1983

DAd tuning

D G

D

A7 D

G A7 D G D

D7 G Em A7
you are fee-lin' blue. Any time you're lone-ly and you don't know what to do, get your self a dul-ci-mer a let it talk to you.

2. If you live in New York City, in a penthouse in the sky, and when the sun goes down, you're so homesick you could cry.
Well get yourself a dulcimer and watch the clouds roll by. While you're makin' country music in the sky.

3. If you're caught in London on a rainy afternoon
Your world seems kind of dull and you're feeling pickyune.
If you'll get yourself a dulcimer and learn to play a tune,
You can brighten up a rainy afternoon.