Rosewood Casket

1. There's a little rosewood casket Resting on a marble stand
   With a packet of old love letters Written by my true love's hand.

2. Go and bring them to me sister,
   Read them all to me tonight.
   I have often tried but I could not
   For the tears that filled my eyes.

3. When I'm dead in my casket When I gently fall asleep fall asleep to waken in heaven Dearest sister do not weep.